

Sept.26, 2017

Many thanks for your prayers as I adjust to Massachusetts. It is taking longer to settle in than I thought, with all the changes in doctors, car registration, etc. But it is proceeding.

Two events are coming up regarding evangelism which need our prayers. First is the meeting of the evangelical group Kairos in Kansas City MO, Oct. 24-27. Cardinal Daniel DiNardo, from Houston, TX, is one of the speakers. Their website, Kairos 2017, gives the details.

Second is the annual meeting of the US Catholic Mission Association, of which Fr. Greg Gallagher OMI is the president. It will meet in San Antonio from Oct. 27-29. Their website, USCMA, contains all the details.

This year is the 50th anniversary of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal. Without the Charismatic Renewal, we would never have come closer to the Protestant Pentecostals and Evangelicals. You may see an item on Oblate leadership in the Charismatic Renewal (with two photos), on the home page of this website. Several items have been added to the Christian Joy page.

Let us keep each other in prayer as Jesus prayed, that all may be one, that the world may believe (Jo. 17:21).
